BERGERAC WINE HOLDINGS PLC.

Finance Director Appointment & Montravel Land Acquisition

Bergerac Wine Holdings PLC ("BWH") is pleased to announce the appointment of Alan Hayter as Finance Director of the company.

Alan is currently and continues as Head of Finance, Aggregates & Asphalt - South for Tarmac, the leading UK building & road surfacing materials company, a post he has held for over 5 years. Alan, based in the UK, has spent his career in Finance, serving as Director or Financial Controller in a number of UK companies.

Alan is a member of the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants, has a B.Sc. in Economics & Accounting from Bristol University, and is also is a long-term property owner in France, including the adjoining region to Bergerac, near Limoges.

BWH has also agreed terms and is in the process of acquiring 12.5 hectares of quality, wine-planted land in the Montravel appellation, on the Bordeaux border near St. Emilion. Complete with a chai or wine processing operation building, this acquisition allows BWH to produce 60-80,000 bottles of high quality wine annually.
